

A special author talk at West Bridgford Library on Saturday 23 April.

By award winning New Zealand crime writer, Ian Austin.

Ex Cop and Ex Pat; Ian's U.K. undercover Police background has formed the basis for his thrilling series featuring Nottingham Detective Dan Calder.

Between 1pm and 3pm on Saturday 23rd April, come and hear Ian talk about his life, career and books, including his upcoming novel which is based in West Bridgford.

On the day, Ian will be making a book donation to Notts Library Service and also offering his books for sale at a very special price.

Spaces are limited and booking will be essential. For enquiries and to book, contact Ian via his website www.ianaustinauthor.com or via his IanAustinAuthor Facebook page.
